1. Introduction

Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan (“SECP”) in order to maintain the integrity of its regulated financial sector including securities brokers; notified the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan Anti-money Laundering /Countering Financing of Terrorism Regulation 2018 (“the Regulations”) vide SRO 770(I)/2018 dated June 13, 2018. The SECP AML/CFT Regulations require SECP Regulated Persons (RPs) to establish policies, systems, and internal controls to detect and combat ML and TF for preventing the abuse of their financial products and services.

In order to implement these Regulations in true sense & spirit, the Commission has issued Guidelines for implementation of AML /CFT framework as contained in the Regulations in September, 2018 for assistance and guidance of Regulated Persons. These Guidelines supplement the Regulations and the AML/CFT regime by clarifying and explaining the general requirements of the AML Law to help Regulated Persons in applying AML/CFT measures, developing an effective AML/CFT risk assessment and compliance framework

Being a regulated person, Fortune Securities prepared this policy under the Guidelines issued by SECP on Anti-Money Laundering (AML) and Countering Financing of Terrorism (CFT) Regulations, 2018. As a regulated person, FSL is required to adopt and effectively implement appropriate Money Laundering (ML) and Terrorist Financing (TF) control processes and procedures as described in Guidelines, to develop an effective AML/CFT risk assessment and compliance framework to maintain the integrity of in respect of preventing, detecting and combating ML/TF & reporting suspicious activities.

2. Objectives

The objective of this policy is to ensure that the services of Fortune Securities Limited (FLS) “the Company” are not used to launder the proceeds of crime and that all staff of FSL are aware of their obligations and the need to remain vigilant in the fight against money laundering and terrorist financing. Further to perform overall entity level risk assessment in relation to ML and TF. The document also provides a framework to comply with following applicable Laws, Regulatory Guidelines specially related with detection and reporting of suspicious activities.

- Securities Act, 2015 and related regulations issued hereunder;
- PSX Rule Book,
- Anti-Money Laundering Act, 2010, and
- Anti-Terrorism Act, 1997

3. Scope

This policy is applicable to all operations of Fortune Securities Limited including business of other Financial Institutions routed through the Company in order to ensure compliance with the Regulations of the country on KYC, CDD, AML/CFT or that of the SECP, and recommendations of FATF.

4. FSL insight towards AML / CFT Compliance

FSL has used SECP Guidelines of Anti-Money Laundering, Countering Financing of Terrorism, and Proliferation Financing to formulate its own AML & CFT Policy. The consequence of contravening the Regulations or failing to comply can be significant and include disciplinary measures, imprisonment or fine or both under local laws as well as the loss of reputation.

Notwithstanding the statutory and regulatory penalties, increased vigilance by Management and staff will protect FSL from the following risks:

- Reputational
- Operational
- Legal
- Financial

5. Responsibilities

- Responsibility of Board of Directors:

Board of Directors of FSL is cognizant to the implications of AML contravention and effect on reputation of the Company. To be utmost compliant to this AML Policy, the board will oversee and ensure the effective implementation of the Policy.

Further, the Board shall periodically review significant AML updates and in order to discharge its responsibility, the Board will:

- a) Authorize the CEO to implement AML CFT Policy effectively at all times.

8.1. Risk Assessment (Policy & Procedures)

8.1.1. Policy

FSL has adequate risk assessment policy at all level related to customer relationship right from opening of accounts, risk profiling, transaction monitoring /analysis, identity & veracity. Customers are categorized into risk categories i.e. high, medium or low based on their basic information provided by them at the time of account opening. Certain customers like, foreign clients, customer having NICOP, Politically Exposed Persons (PEPs), Persons identified in NRA-2019, Trust, NOPs etc. and as updated by the appropriate agencies immediately classified in high-risk category. Risk rating or risk profiling of customers would be updated during relationship based on the many factors i.e., public information, updation request from client, customer inactive over a long time period etc. Review period of each risk category of customers will be as follows:

- High Risk Clients - At least once a year
- Medium Risk Clients - At least once every two years
- Low Risk Clients - Every three years

The above review period may be different when triggered by a defined event. For high-risk clients, management approval will be obtained

8.1.2. Procedures

As described above, customers are classified in high categories based on the initial information at the time of account opening. Compliance department performs scrutiny of the information mentioned in account form & supporting documents attached. For high-risk clients, enhanced due diligence is performed and additional documents/evidences are sought in order to support the risk profiling. For medium and low-risk clients simplified due diligence measured are performed.

8.2. Applying Risk Based Approach to mitigate ML and TF Risks

Money Laundering and Counter Financing of Terrorism risks mitigation depends on risk tolerance which impacts the mitigation measures and controls. Establishment of risk tolerance within FSL is to be done by senior management and the Board considering the sufficient capacity and expertise to manage the risks along with the consequences of compliance failure.

All policies, procedures and controls related to ML & CFT risk mitigation would be reviewed and approved by senior management preferably annually. Policies and controls would be consistent with legal and regulatory requirements of FSL and will depend on Nature, scale, geographical diversity, customer profile, volume of transactions, & extent of reliance on third parties.

Following are mitigating measures which FSL will follow:

- a) Determine the scope of identification and verification requirements according to risk posed by customer.
- b) Setting transaction limits for higher-risk customers.
- c) For high-risk customer/transactions including PEPs, senior management approval is taken.
- d) Determining the circumstances wherein high-risk customer may be refused.
- e) To assess the effectiveness of risk mitigation procedures and controls following areas are monitored:
- f) Changes in customer profile
- g) Potential for abuse of product and services to be used for ML / TF purposes.
- h) Adequate employees' trainings and awareness related to ML, TF & PF
- i) Good internal coordination between Compliance and other functions at FSL
- j) The performance of third parties (when required) who were relied on for CDD purposes
- k) Changes in relevant laws or regulatory requirements and their adoption and implementation.
- l) Changes in the risk profile of countries of customers

In order to have appropriate mechanism to provide risk assessment information to the Commission, FSL documents the following:

- a) ML / TF risk assessment system
- b) Evidence of implementation of systems and procedures for risk mitigation including due diligence requirements
- c) Monitoring and improvement in the effectiveness of systems and procedures
- d) Arrangement for reporting to the Board /senior management regarding results of ML/TF risk assessment and mitigation
- e) Maintain AML / CFT Compliance Assessment Checklist (Annexure-3)

8.3. Know Your Customer & Customer Due Diligence (New & Existing)

8.3.1. Account opening Policy & Guidelines

Every customer individual or institution who wishes to open trading account with FSL, must provide the required documents as described in our account opening form. Any other additional document may be needed if the identification of customer requires more evidence. No anonymous or obviously fictitious account would be opened. It is important to find out and document in broad terms what does the customer intend to do. For example, are there any specific sectors or stocks that the customer does not wish to participate in; is the customer intending to invest for short-term only or longer term only; will investment be only in liquid scrips or any scrip; or any other special needs or requirements of the customer.

Obtain customer's other information such as age, gender, occupation, knowledge of market, etc. This will help us to develop a sense of the risk-taking capacity and profile of the customer and thus guide the customer in more effective manner. It will also help us to understand whether the customer should be classified as a low, medium or a high-risk customer from the KYC /CDD perspective.

In case of corporate clients, a careful examination of the ownership and controlling parties is required. Authorization of person who is authorized to operate the account on company's behalf must be checked.

Ensure that accounts of institutions (Private as well as Public) should not be opened in names of their employees, officers /Officials in individual capacity.

Physical presence of the account opener/authorized representative is necessary at the time of opening any account except in exceptional cases and NRPs clients through Roshan Digital Pakistan. In the case of non-resident /overseas customers or customers in other cities, following actions should be adopted

- Verification by a reliable third party,
- Verification by NADRA Verysis System
- Reference of an existing customer
- Confirmation from another broker with whom the customer had an account

8.3.2. Customer Due Diligence

This is the policy of FSL to conduct KYC/CDD of each and every customer; verification may be completed after the establishment of business relationship however where risk is low. When there is doubt about the veracity or adequacy of previously obtained customer identification data, or there is a suspicion / red flags warning mentioned in Annexure-4, CDD measures would be applied which include the following:

- a) Identification and verification of the customer including beneficial ownership on the basis of documents, data or information obtained from customer and from reliable and independent sources; data or information including verification of CNIC, from NADRA Verisys/Biometric.

- b) Understanding and, obtaining information on the purpose and intended nature of the business relationship; and
- c) Monitoring of accounts/transactions on on-going basis to ensure that the transactions being conducted are consistent with the FSL knowledge of the customer, the customer's business and risk profile (Annexure-2), including the source of funds and updating records and information to take prompt action when there is material departure from usual and expected activity through regular matching with information already available with FSL.
- d) FSL will obtain such documents from different types of customers as provided in Annexure -1.

Determine whether the person is acting on behalf of a customer and should take reasonable steps to obtain.

- I. Evidence to determine authority of such person to act on behalf of the customer, which shall be verified through documentary evidence including specimen signature of the customer;
- II. Identification and verification of the person purporting to act on behalf of the customer using NADRA Verification or Biometric
- III. Identification and verification of the customer.
- e) Each customer shall be categorized as High, Medium or Low risk, depending upon the outcome of the CDD process;
- f) When FSL has reason to believe that a customer has been refused by another brokerage house due to concern over illicit activities, that customer should be classified as higher-risk and will apply enhanced due diligence procedures. FSL will maintain a list of all such customers where the business relationship was refused or needed to be closed on account of negative verification;
- g) If the CDD measure could not be completed satisfactorily, the account shall not be opened or if already opened, the relationship should be treated as high risk and reporting of suspicious transaction with FMU will be considered with the approval of senior management.
- h) If there is doubt of money laundering or terrorist financing activity by any customer, and it is believed that initiating CDD process will tip-off the customer, FSL will not pursue CDD process rather file STR with the approval of senior management.
- i) Government entities accounts shall not be opened in the personal names of the government officials and account which is to be operated by an officer of the Federal or Provincial or Local Government in his/her official capacity, shall be opened only on production of a special resolution or authority from the concerned administrative department or ministry duly endorsed by the Ministry of Finance or Finance Department/Division of the concerned organization of Government. Any rules, regulations or procedures prescribed in the governing laws of such entities relating to opening and maintaining of their bank accounts should be taken into consideration.

If the customer is a legal person or legal arrangements, In addition to above measures, FSL takes the following specific measures:

- a) Understand the nature of customer's business and its ownership and control structure
- b) Identify and verify the identity of the natural persons (whether acting alone or together) who ultimately own the legal person by obtaining relevant information from the customer;
- c) Where there is doubt as to whether the natural persons who ultimately own the legal person are the beneficial owners or where no natural persons ultimately own the legal person, identify the natural persons (if any) who ultimately control the legal person or have ultimate effective control of the legal person; and
- d) Where no natural persons are identified, identify the natural persons having executive authority in the legal person, or in equivalent or similar positions.

Additionally, the following information would be required:

- a) name, legal form and proof of existence;
- b) the powers that regulate and bind the legal person or arrangement, as well as the names of the relevant persons having a senior management position in the legal person or arrangement; and
- c) the address of the registered office and, if different, a principal place of business

8.4. Beneficial Owner

Beneficial Ownership in relation to a customer means the natural person who ultimately owns or controls a customer or the natural person on whose behalf a transaction is being conducted and includes the person who exercise ultimate effective control over a person or a legal arrangement.

For legal persons or arrangements, ownership and control structure would be analyzed based on the records available or provided. In case any lack of transparency or doubt or higher risk, verification of ultimate beneficial ownership is checked in the Register of Ultimate Beneficial Ownership.

For complex structure, foreign owned entities, identity and veracity of clients and their beneficial owners will be ascertained using information and data publicly available on internet. Also verify whether, the beneficial owner is PEP or has linked with a high-risk jurisdiction.

8.7. Special Cases of Higher Risk & Enhanced Due Diligence

8.7.1. Politically Exposed Persons (PEPs)

PEPs are the persons holding important public positions and include heads of state, ministers, influential public officials, judges and military commanders including their family members and close associates either socially or professionally.

Family members of a PEP are individuals who are related to a PEP either directly or through marriage. Close associates are individuals who are closely connected to PEP either socially or professionally. Close associates have in many cases been used to provide a cover for the financial activities of a PEP and may not be in any way connected to the PEP in an official capacity. While performing CDD/EDD, analyzing source of funds or wealth of customer, it is necessary to have clear understanding of close association.

Business relationship with these PEPs may exposes significant reputational risks or legal risk, and extra information requests from law enforcement or judicial authorities including seizure order of these accounts.

In assessing the ML/TF risks of a PEP, FSL shall consider factors such as whether the customer who is a PEP:

- a) Is from a high-risk country;
- b) Has prominent public functions in sectors known to be exposed to corruption;
- c) Has business interests that can cause conflict of interests (with the position held).
- d) Has been mentioned in media related to illicit financial behavior
- e) The other red flags that the FSL shall consider include:
 - (i) The information that is provided by the PEP is inconsistent with other (publicly available) information, such as asset declarations and published official salaries;
 - (ii) Funds are repeatedly moved to and from countries to which the PEP does not seem to have ties;
 - (iii) A PEP uses multiple bank accounts for no apparent commercial or other reason;
 - (iv) The PEP is from a country that prohibits or restricts certain citizens from holding accounts or owning certain property in a foreign country.
 - (v) A family member of a PEP without own financial means is transacting with the FSL without declaring the relationship to a PEP or the origin of the funds transacted.

- (vi) The PEP is associated with or owns, or signs for, complex legal structures that are commonly used to hide Beneficial Ownership.

When a PEP is no longer a PEP, following factors should be considered

- a) Level of (informal/unofficial) influence that the individual could still exercise
- b) Whether the individual's previous and current function are linked in any way within a party, family or institution

FSL is more vigilant in establishing relationship with PEPs and has following controls while dealing with these PEPs.

- a) Apply additional Identification procedures to determine whether the customer is a politically exposed person;
- b) Obtain senior management approval for establishing business relationships with such customers;
- c) Take reasonable measures to establish the source of wealth and source of funds; and
- d) Conduct enhanced ongoing monitoring of the business relationship.

Senior management approval is obtained to continue a business relationship once a customer or beneficial owner is found to be, or subsequently becomes, a PEP.

8.7.2. Non-Profit Organizations (NPOs)

In Pakistan's National Risk Assessment, 2019, NPOs are classified as High-Risk Sector for TF. While dealing with NPOs FSL would consider

- a) Beneficiaries and Beneficial Owners including certain donors that maintain decision rights
- b) Flow of funds and use of funds by an NPO

8.7.3. High-Risk Countries and Higher Risk Regions within country

There are certain ML CF risks, associated with some countries or regions within countries, which need to be ascertained while conducting business relationship with them. They carry the risk of channeling the illicit money flows. Following are example of countries or regions within countries that which have higher AML/CFT risk profile.

- a) Border regions (Afghanistan, Iran)
- b) Large transit points i.e. Ports, regions having social unrest

- c) Regions with specific crimes such as cash or people smuggling drug trafficking, fraud and corruption

FSL would exercise extra cautions and performed enhanced due diligence enhance due diligence proportionate to the risk as indicated by the Federal Government, pursuant to recommendations by the National Executive Committee and when called upon to do so by the FATF. FSL will also consider the publicly available information regarding the high-risk countries / territories and sanction list issued by UN, FATF etc.

8.8. Simplified Due Diligence

FSL shall apply simplified or reduced CDD measures as identified (but not limited) in the latest National Risk Assessment. Following are some cases where CDD measures apply:

- a) Risk of money laundering or terrorist financing is lower
- b) When the information regarding identity of the customer and beneficial owner of a customer is publicly available
- c) Adequate checks and controls exist
- d) Financial institutions which are subject to requirements to combat money laundering and terrorist financing consistent with the FATF recommendations and are supervised for compliance with those controls.
- e) Public companies that are subject to regulatory disclosure requirements
- f) Government administrations or enterprises
- g) Banks, Public Listed Companies, Modaraba, NBFC, & Insurance Companies

Unless there is suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing, FSL applies following measures of simplified due diligences:

- a) Reducing the frequency of customer identification updates.
- b) Rely on third parties for verifying the identity of customer and beneficial owners.
- c) Reducing degree of on-going monitoring and scrutinizing transactions, based on reasonable monetary threshold.
- d) Not collecting specific information.
- e) Undertaking verification after establishment of the business relationship
- f) Less stringent steps to verify the Beneficial Owner

AML/CFT Compliance Assessment Checklist
Annexure-3

Name of the Financial Institution: Fortune Securities Limited

Checklist completed by (Name) Fazal Mehmood Malik

(Designation) Head of Compliance

Date

The AML / CFT Self-Assessment Checklist has been designed to provide a structured and comprehensive framework for RFIs and their associated entities to assess compliance with key AML / CFT requirements. RFIs are advised to use this as part of their regular review to monitor their AML/CFT compliance. The frequency and extent of such review should be commensurate with the risks of ML/TF and the size of the firm's business. Note: This AML / CFT Self-Assessment Checklist is neither intended to, nor should be construed as, an exhaustive list of all AML/CFT requirements.

Sr. No.	Question	Yes/No (N/A)	If No, provide explanation and plan of action for remediation
(A) AML/CFT Systems
1	RPs are required to assess their ML / TF risk and then implement appropriate internal policies, procedures and controls to mitigate risks of ML/TF.
	Have you taken into account the following risk factors when assessing your own ML / TF risk?
	(a) Product / service risk
	(b) Delivery / distribution channel risk
	(c) Customer risk
	(d) Country risk
2 and	RPs are required to have effective controls to ensure proper implementation of AML/CFT policies and procedures.
	Does your AML/CFT systems cover the following controls?
	(a) Board of Director and Senior management oversight
	(ii) Have you appointed an appropriate staff as a Compliance Officer ('CO')?
	(iii) Do you ensure that CO is:
	1. the focal point for the oversight of all activities relating to the prevention and detection of ML/TF
	2. independent of all operational and business functions as far as practicable within any constraint of size of your institution
	3. of a sufficient level of seniority and authority within your institution
	4. provided with regular contact with and direct access to senior management to ensure that senior management is able to satisfy itself that the statutory obligations are being met and the measures against the risks of ML/TF is sufficient and robust

	(c) Staff screening
	(i) Do you establish, maintain and operate appropriate procedures in order to be satisfied of the integrity of any new employees?
3	RP with overseas branches or subsidiary undertakings should put in place a group AML/CFT policy to ensure an overall compliance with the CDD and record-keeping requirements.
	Does your firm have overseas branches and subsidiary undertakings?
	Do you have a group AML/CFT policy to ensure that all overseas branches and subsidiary undertakings have procedures in place to comply with the CDD and record-keeping requirements similar to those set under the AML Regulations?
	If yes, is such policy well communicated within your group?
	In the case where your overseas branches or subsidiary undertakings are unable to comply with the above-mentioned policy due to local laws' restrictions, have you done the following?
	(a) inform the SECP of such failure

(B) Risk-Based Approach ('RBA')

	(b) take additional measures to effectively mitigate ML/TF risks faced by them
4	RPs are required to determine the extent of CDD measures and ongoing monitoring, using an RBA depending upon the background of the customer and the product, transaction or service used by that customer.
	Does your RBA identify and categorize ML/TF risks at the customer level and establish reasonable measures based on risks identified?
	Do you consider the following risk factors when determining the ML/TF risk rating of customers?
	(a) Country risk - customers with residence in or connection with the below high-risk jurisdictions
	(i) countries identified by the FATF as jurisdictions with strategic AML/CFT deficiencies
	(ii) countries subject to sanctions, embargoes or similar measures issued by international authorities
	(iii) countries which are vulnerable to corruption
	(iv) countries that are believed to have strong links to terrorist activities
	(b) Customer risk - customers with the below nature or behavior might present a higher ML/TF risk
	(i) the public profile of the customer indicating involvement with, or connection to, politically exposed persons ('PEPs')

Policy Name:	Know Your Customer, Client Due Diligence, Anti-Money Laundering Countering Financing of Terrorism and Proliferation Financing

	(iv) involvement in cash-intensive businesses
	(v) nature, scope and location of business activities generating the funds/assets, having regard to sensitive or high-risk activities
	(vi) the origin of wealth (for high-risk customers and PEPs) or ownership cannot be easily verified
	(c) Product/service risk - product/service with the below factors might present a higher risk
	(i) services that inherently have provided more anonymity
	(ii) ability to pool underlying customers/funds
	(d) Distribution/delivery channels
	(i) a non-face-to-face account opening approach is used
	(ii) Business sold through third party agencies or intermediaries
	Do you adjust your risk assessment of customers from time to time or based upon information received from a competent authority, and review the extent of the CDD and ongoing monitoring to be applied?
	Do you maintain all records and relevant documents of the above risk assessment?
	If yes, are they able to demonstrate to the SECP the following?
	(a) how you assess the customer
	(b) the extent of CDD and ongoing monitoring is appropriate based on that customer's ML/TF risk

(C) - Customer Due Diligence ('CDD')

5	for	RP's are required to carry out CDD, which is a vital tool for recognizing whether there are grounds for knowledge or suspicion of ML/TF.
		Do you conduct the following CDD measures?
		(a) identify the customer and verify the customer's identity using reliable, independent source documents, data or information
		(b) where there is a beneficial owner in relation to the customer, identify and take reasonable measures to verify the beneficial owner's identity, including in the case of a legal person or trust, measures to enable you to understand the ownership and control structure of the legal person or trust
		(c) obtain information on the purpose and intended nature of the business relationship established with you unless the purpose and intended nature are obvious
		(d) if a person purports to act on behalf of the customer:
		(i) identify the person and take reasonable measures to verify the person's identity using reliable and independent source documents, data or information
		(ii) verify the person's authority to act on behalf of the customer (e.g. written authority, board resolution)
		Do you apply CDD requirements in the following conditions?
		(a) at the outset of a business relationship
		(b) when you suspect that a customer or a customer's account is involved in ML/TF
		(c) when you doubt the veracity or adequacy of any information previously obtained for the purpose of identifying the customer or for the purpose of verifying the customer's identity
6		RP's are required to identify and take reasonable measures to verify the identity of a beneficial owner.

	When an individual is identified as a beneficial owner, do you obtain the following identification information?
	(a) Full name
	(b) Date of birth
	(c) Nationality
	(d) Identity document type and number
	Do you verify the identity of beneficial owner(s) with reasonable measures, based on its assessment of the ML/TF risks, so that you know who the beneficial owner(s) is?
7	RP's are required to identify and take reasonable measures to verify the identity of a person who purports to act on behalf of the customer and is authorized to give instructions for the movement of funds or assets.
	When a person purports to act on behalf of a customer and is authorized to give instructions for the movement of funds or assets, do you obtain the identification information and take reasonable measures to verify the information obtained?
	Do you obtain the written authorization to verify that the individual purporting to represent the customer is authorized to do so?
	Do you use a streamlined approach on occasions where difficulties have been encountered in identifying and verifying signatories of individuals being represented to comply with the CDD requirements?
	If yes, do you perform the following:
	(a) adopt an RBA to assess whether the customer is a low risk customer and that the streamlined approach is only applicable to these low risk customers
	(b) obtain a signatory list, recording the names of the account signatories, whose identities and authority to act have been confirmed by a department or person within that customer which is independent to the persons whose identities are being verified
8	RP's are required to take appropriate steps to verify the genuineness of identification provided if suspicions are raised.
	In case of suspicions raised in relation to any document in performing CDD, have you taken practical and proportionate steps to establish whether the document offered is genuine, or has been reported as lost or stolen? (e.g. search publicly available information, approach relevant authorities)
	Have you rejected any documents provided during CDD and considered making a report to the authorities (e.g. FMU, police) where suspicion on the genuineness of the information cannot be eliminated?
9	RP's are required to understand the purpose and intended nature of the business relationship established.
	Unless the purpose and intended nature are obvious, have you obtained satisfactory information from all new customers (including non-residents) as to the intended purpose and reason for opening the account or establishing the business relationship, and record the information on the relevant account opening documentation?
10	RP's are required to complete the CDD before establishing business relationships.
	Do you always complete the CDD process before establishing business relationships? If you always complete CDD process before establishing a business relationship
	If you are unable to complete the CDD process, do you ensure that the relevant business relationships must not be established and assess whether this failure provides grounds for knowledge or suspicion of ML/TF to submit a report to the FMU as appropriate?

	If the CDD process is not completed before establishing a business relationship, would these be on an exception basis only and with consideration of the following:
	(a) any risk of ML/TF arising from the delayed verification of the customer's or beneficial owner's identity can be effectively managed.
	(b) it is necessary not to interrupt the normal course of business with the customer (e.g. securities transactions).
	(c) verification is completed as soon as reasonably practicable.
	(d) the business relationship will be terminated if verification cannot be completed as soon as reasonably practicable.
	Have you adopted appropriate risk management policies and procedures when a customer is permitted to enter into a business relationship prior to verification?
	If yes, do they include the following?
	(a) establishing timeframes for the completion of the identity verification measures and that it is carried out as soon as reasonably practicable
	(b) placing appropriate limits on the number of transactions and type of transactions that can be undertaken pending verification
	(c) ensuring that funds are not paid out to any third party
	(d) other relevant policies and procedures
	When terminating a business relationship where funds or other assets have been received, have you returned the funds or assets to the source (where possible) from which they were received?
11	RP's are required to keep the customer information up-to-date and relevant.
	Do you undertake reviews of existing records of customers to ensure that the information obtained for the purposes of complying with the AML requirements are up-to-date and relevant when one of the following trigger events happen?
	(a) when a significant transaction is to take place
	(b) when a material change occurs in the way the customer's account is operated
	(c) when your customer documentation standards change substantially
	(d) when you are aware that you lack sufficient information about the customer concerned
	(e) if there are other trigger events that you consider and defined in your policies and procedures, please elaborate further in the text box
	Are all high-risk customers subject to a review of their profile?
12	RP's are required to identify and verify the true and full identity of each natural person by using reliable and independent sources of information.
	Do you have customers which are natural persons?
	Do you collect the identification information for customers:
	(i) Residents
	(ii) Non-residents
	(iii) Non-residents who are not physically present
	Do you document the information?
	If yes, please provide a list of acceptable documents that you obtain for verifying residential address (e.g., utility bills or bank statements). For the avoidance of doubt, please note according to the Guideline on AML and CFT that certain types of address verification should not be considered sufficient, e.g., a post office box address, for persons residing in Pakistan or corporate customers registered and/or operating in Pakistan.
	In cases where customers may not be able to produce verified evidence of residential address have you adopted alternative methods and applied these on a risk sensitive basis?

	Do you require additional identity information to be provided or verify additional aspects of identity if the customer, or the product or service, is assessed to present a higher ML/TF risk?
13	RP's are required to identify and verify the true and full identity of each legal person and trust and its beneficial owners by using reliable and independent sources of information.
	Do you have measures to look behind each legal person or trust to identify those who have ultimate control or ultimate beneficial ownership over the business and the customer's assets?
	Do you fully understand the customer's legal form, structure and ownership, and obtain information on the nature of its business, and reasons for seeking the product or service when the reasons are not obvious?
14	Corporation
	Do you have customers which are corporations?
	Do you obtain the following information and verification documents in relation to a customer which is a corporation?
	For companies with multiple layers in their ownership structures, do you have an understanding of the ownership and control structure of the company and fully identify the intermediate layers of the company?
	Do you take further measures, when the ownership structure of the company is dispersed/complex/multi-layered without an obvious commercial purpose, to verify the identity of the ultimate beneficial owners?
15	Partnerships and unincorporated bodies
	Do you have customers which are partnerships or unincorporated bodies?
	Do you take reasonable measures to verify the identity of the beneficial owners of the partnerships or unincorporated bodies?
	Do you obtain the information and verification documents in relation to the partnership or unincorporated body?
	Do you have customers which are in the form of trusts?
	Do you obtain the information and verification documents to verify the existence, legal form and parties to a trust?
	Have you taken particular care in relation to trusts created in jurisdictions where there is no or weak money laundering legislation?
16	RP's may conduct simplified 'Know Your Customer' due diligence ('SDD') process instead of full CDD measures given reasonable grounds to support it. Simplified due diligence is the lowest level of due diligence that can be completed on a customer. This is appropriate where there is little opportunity or risk of your services or customer becoming involved in money laundering or terrorist financing. SDD is a condition where the timing of the actual verification of a particular customer is deferred until such time the entire CDD process is completed, rather than reducing what needs to be obtained, under a risk-based approach.
	Have you conducted SDD instead of full CDD measures for your customers?
	Do you refrain from applying SDD when you suspect that the customer, the customer's account or the transaction is involved in ML/TF, or when you doubt the veracity or adequacy of any information previously obtained for the purpose of identifying or verifying the customer?
	Before the application of SDD on any of the customer categories, have you performed checking on whether they meet the criteria of the respective category?
17	RP's are required, in any situation that by its nature presents a higher risk of ML/TF, to take additional measures to mitigate the risk of ML/TF.
	Do you take additional measures or enhanced due diligence ('EDD') when the customer presents a higher risk of ML/TF?

	If yes, do they include the following?
	(a) obtaining additional information on the customer and updating more regularly the customer profile including the identification data
	(b) obtaining additional information on the intended nature of the business relationship, the source of wealth and source of funds
	(c) obtaining the approval of senior management to commence or continue the relationship
	(d) conducting enhanced monitoring of the business relationship, by increasing the number and timing of the controls applied and selecting patterns of transactions that need further examination.
18	RPs are required to apply equally effective customer identification procedures and ongoing monitoring standards for customers not physically present for identification purposes as for those where the customer is available for interview.
	Do you accept customers that are not physically present for identification purposes to open an account?
	If yes, have you taken additional measures to compensate for any risk associated with customers not physically present (i.e. face to face) for identification purposes?
	If yes, do you document such information?
19	RPs are required to determine whether a potential customer, a customer or the beneficial owner is a politically exposed person ('PEP') and to adopt EDD on PEPs.
	Do you define what a PEP (foreign and domestic) is in your AML/CFT policies and procedures?
	Have you established and maintained effective procedures for determining whether a customer or a beneficial owner of a customer is a PEP (foreign and domestic)?
	If yes, is screening and searches performed to determine if a customer or a beneficial owner of a customer is a PEP? (e.g. through commercially available databases, publicly available sources and internet / media searches etc.)
20	Foreign PEPs
	Do you conduct EDD at the outset of the business relationship and ongoing monitoring when a foreign PEP is identified or suspected?
	Have you applied the following EDD measures when you know that a particular customer or beneficial owner is a foreign PEP (for both existing and new business relationships)?
	(a) obtaining approval from your senior management
	(b) taking reasonable measures to establish the customer's or the beneficial owner's source of wealth and the source of the funds
	(c) applying enhanced monitoring to the relationship in accordance with the assessed risks
21	Domestic PEPs
	Have you performed a risk assessment for an individual known to be a domestic PEP to determine whether the individual poses a higher risk of ML/TF?
	If yes and the domestic PEP poses a higher ML/TF risk, have you applied EDD and monitoring specified in question C.40 above?
	If yes, have you retained a copy of the assessment for related authorities, other authorities and auditors and reviewed the assessment whenever concerns as to the activities of the individual arise?
	For foreign and domestic PEPs assessed to present a higher risk, are they subject to a minimum of an annual review and ensure the CDD information remains up-to-date and relevant?

Proliferation Financing Warning Signs/Red Alerts

Annexure - 6

FSL should take note of the following circumstances where customers and transactions are more vulnerable to be involved in proliferation financing activities relating to both DPRK and Iran sanctions regimes:

- a) Customers and transactions associated with countries subject to sanctions;
- b) Instruments that could particularly be used to finance prohibited transactions, such as certain trade financing products and services;
- c) Customers involved with and/or transactions related to items, materials, equipment, goods and technology prohibited by UNSCRs;
- d) Reasonableness of invoiced goods against market value, inconsistency or discrepancies in trade-related documentation.

In particular, RPs should be alert to the following non-exhaustive list of factors that are relevant to the DPRK sanctions regime:

- a) significant withdrawals or deposits of bulk cash that could potentially be used to evade targeted financial sanctions and activity-based financial prohibitions;
- b) opening of banking accounts by DPRK diplomatic personnel, who have been limited to one account each under relevant UNSCRs (including number of bank accounts being held, holding of joint accounts with their family members);
- c) clearing of funds, granting of export credits or guarantees to persons or entities that are associated with trading transactions relating to the DPRK;
- d) providing insurance or re-insurance services to maritime vessels owned, controlled or operated, including through illicit means, by the DPRK or classification services to vessels which there are reasonable grounds to believe were involved in activities, or the transport of items, prohibited by UNSCRs concerning the DPRK, unless the Security Council 1718 Committee determines otherwise on a case-by-case basis;
- e) direct or indirect supply, sale or transfer to the DPRK of any new or used vessels or providing insurance or re-insurance services to vessels owned, controlled, or operated, including through illicit means, by the DPRK, except as approved in advance by the Security Council 1718 Committee on a case-by-case basis; or
- f) the leasing, chartering or provision of crew services to the DPRK without exception, unless the Security Council 1718 Committee approves on a case-by-case basis in advance; or
- g) Using real property that DPRK owns or leases in Pakistan for any purpose other than diplomatic of counselor activities.
